Forfeiture of Earnest Money Deposits

The failure by a Purchaser to close on the sale of property within the allowable time period, including any extensions granted by HUD, will result in the forfeiture of the earnest money deposit, except where the Purchaser presents documentation to HUD that one of the special circumstances described in paragraphs (a) and (b) below of this section has occurred.

(a) Investor Purchases

1. The failure by an investor Purchaser to close on an uninsured sale will result in forfeiture of the entire earnest money deposit.
2. Fifty percent of the earnest money deposit on an insured sale will be returned to an investor Purchaser where HUD (or a Direct Endorsement tender using HUD guidelines) determines that the Purchaser is not an acceptable borrower.

(b) Owner-Occupant Purchasers

1. The entire earnest money deposit will be returned to an owner-occupant Purchaser who fails to close where, since the contract of sales was signed:
 - (i) There has been a death in the immediate family (contract holder, spouse, or children living in the same household);
 - (ii) There has been a recent serious illness in the immediate family that has resulted in significant medical expenses or substantial loss of income, thus adversely affecting the Purchaser's financial ability to close the sale;
 - (iii) There has been a loss of job by one of the primary breadwinners, or substantial loss of income through no fault of the Purchaser;
 - (iv) In the case of an insured sale, HUD (or a Direct Endorsement tender using HUD guidelines) determines that the Purchaser is not an acceptable borrower; or
 - (v) On an uninsured sale, the purchaser was pre-approved for mortgage financing in an appropriate amount by a recognized mortgage lender and despite good faith efforts, is unable to obtain mortgage financing.
 - (vi) For other good cause, as determined by HUD.

On either type of sale, forfeit 100 percent of the deposit in those instances where no documentation is submitted, where the documentation fails to provide an acceptable cause for the buyer's failure to close, or where documentation is not provided within a reasonable time following contract cancellation (e.g., 30 days).

Seller Disclosure

Seller makes no representations or warranties concerning the condition of the property, including but not limited to mechanical system dry basement, foundation, structural, or compliance with code, zoning or building requirements and will make no repairs to the property after execution of this contract. Purchaser understands that regardless of whether the property is being financed with an FHA-insured mortgage, Seller does not guarantee or warrant that the property is free of visible or hidden structural defects, termite damage, lead-based paint, mold, or any other condition that may render the property uninhabitable or otherwise unusable. Purchaser acknowledges responsibility for taking such action as it believes necessary to satisfy itself that the property is in a condition acceptable to it, of laws, regulations and ordinances affecting the property and agrees to accept the property in the condition existing on the date of this contract. Seller disclosure concerning HOA dues, Mello Roos taxes, assessments, or any tax concerning HUD homes is based on available information but not deemed complete or accurate. It is the responsibility of the Buyer to obtain all information concerning these issues.

Walk-Thru Inspection

All Purchasers are strongly encouraged to perform a walk through inspection PRIOR to the close of escrow. If a Purchaser discovers a property condition that did not exist at the time of sale they must immediately notify HUD's property manager, PEMCO, Ltd. of the damage. Reporting of the damage does not guarantee the correction of the problem that has been discovered. Each case will be looked at and a determination will be made as to whether the damage will be repaired or proper credits given at the close of escrow, if those repairs or credits are deemed in the best interest of the Dept. of HUD. The buyer assumes full responsibility for the property and its condition on the date of close of escrow. The Department assumes no responsibility and will make no settlement, for damages reported to HUD after the close of escrow. (See item # 13.E of HUD Sales Contract).
